

"Isle Royale National Park" The least visited National Wilderness Park in the lower 48 States, and right in our backyard. Presented by author / arborist, Vic Foerster. Author of "Naked in the Stream, Isle Royale Stories."

Veteran of thirty years of visits to the island, listen to the story of the kayak crossing of Lake Superior, a rescue of a young family blown off shore in their canoe, wildlife encounters, and experience wilderness via the eyes of an arborist who spends his time observing the outdoors.
