

“Paddling the Islands of Lake Gitchigumi The Apostle Island National Lakeshore”

Apostle Islands are a paddler’s playground and should be high on any paddlers “bucket list”. Mark will present on a recent seven day trip he completed with his brother, Hugh. The presentation will focus on paddling the Islands, gear, equipment, weather safety, and trip preparation.

Mark Walton has been an avid sailor and paddler for many years. In 2000, Mark met Verlen Kruger and bought a Kruger Sea Canoe in 2001...he has not been the same since. Since that time he has paddled his Kruger Sea Canoe on various rivers and lakes in Canada and the Great Lakes Region
