

Quiet Water Symposium

Outdoor Michigan's Favorite Indoor Show!

March 4, 2006
9:00 AM to 6:00 PM
MSU Agriculture Pavilion
Admission $8.00, Under 12 Free

This Annual Event celebrates non-motorized outdoor recreation and a concern for our Great Lakes water resources. It is also a part of MSU's Agriculture & Natural Resources Week.

Speakers

Continuous live presentations on adventures, experiences, & skills (please see reverse side for details)

Demonstrations

Canoe & kayak construction
Outdoor & traditional skills
Canoe re-canvassing
Fly tying
Camping, cooking, & first aid

Opportunities

Paddling adventures
Recreational clubs
Paddling safety, instruction & skills
Outdoor photography
Children's Activities

Exhibits

Over 70 interesting exhibits

Environmental Stewardship

Watershed conservation groups
Nature centers

Resources

Books, magazines, videos, DVD's
Canoe History, Maps & Museum
Paddling clubs, bicycling clubs
Wooden Canoe Heritage Association

Door Prizes

For more information, please visit:
www.quietwatersymposium.org

Featured Speakers:

"Cooking Secrets in the Wilderness"
10:00 AM Cliff Jacobson

"Wilderness First Aid –
The Top Ten Skills"
12:00 PM Dr. Wendy Watson

"Exploring the Wild Coastline of the Upper Great Lakes"
2:00 PM Joanie & Gary McGuffin

"Bug Proofing Your Camp"
4:00 PM Cliff Jacobson

1:30 PM - *Presentation of the
Verlen Kruger Award*

Other Presenters:

Re-Canvassing a Canoe Gilbert Cramer

"Lake Superior by Kayak: Thunder Bay to
Sault Ste. Marie Mike Petzold

"Paddling Canada's Lake Superior Coast"
David Wells

"Family Camping in the Quetico" David Jackson

"Growing Up Canoeing" Emma Bailey

"All Things Are Possible-The Verlen Kruger Story"
Phil Peterson Sr.

"Top Ten Tips from a Pro Photographer"
Kimberli Bindschatel

"A Summer on the Yukon with Verlen & Jenny"
Dan Pahman

"French Toast & Gatorade: Cross-Country
Bicycle Touring" Ed Noonan

"Paddling on Lake Superior" Dan Pahman

"Cruising the Alaskan Coast" Cindy Hicks

"Almost Another Journey to the Polar Sea"
Jay Hanks

Examples of Exhibits:

Handcrafted canoes and kayaks, paddle making, custom canoes, historic watercraft, water safety, canoe & kayak clubs, guiding services, back country cooking, outdoor clubs, nature photography, traditional skills, flint knapping, fly tying, fishing equipment, wooden snowshoes, bicycling opportunities, Michigan trail systems, watershed conservation organizations, nature centers & more.

(Code No. 8009-0729)