

11th Annual

Quiet Water Symposium a part of ANR Week

An annual event where those who share a love of outdoor, non-motorized recreation come together to share:

?Our Experiences and Adventures in the great outdoors

?The Equipment we build and use

?Our Concerns for our waters and related resources

?Opportunities to participate

Date: Saturday March 4, 2006

Location: The Pavilion for Livestock and Agriculture Education
(Farm Lane, south of Mt Hope - on the campus of MSU)

Time: 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM

Admission: Adults $8.00 - under 12 Free

Featured Speakers

- ✍ 10:00 AM Cliff Jacobson "Cooking Secrets in the Wilderness"
- ✍ 12:00 PM Dr. Wendy Watson "Wilderness First Aid -The Top Ten Skills"
- ✍ 1:30 PM
- ✍ Presentaton of the Verlen Kruger Award
- ✍ 2:00 PM Joanie & Gary McGuffin
"Exploring the Wild Coastline of the Upper Great Lakes"
- ✍ 4:00 PM Cliff Jacobson "Bug Proofing Your Camp"

EXHIBITS

Beautiful hand-built canoes, kayaks, rowing craft, outdoor gear. Dog Sleds. Antique and restored classic canoes, traditional snowshoes, bicycles - and more.

OPPORTUNITIES:

Paddling Adventures - Recreational Clubs -Paddling safety, instruction and skills
Outdoor photography - Children's activities: Model Boat Painting, Flint Knapping

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP:

Watershed groups - Red Cedar Flyfishers - Environmental Groups -
Nature Centers

DEMONSTRATION

Wooden canoe re-canvassing Gourmet outdoor cooking - Fly tying
Outdoor and Traditional Skills

---

For more information: www.quietwatersymposium.org